Paul the Apostle Worship Theme 11.4.2010

According to the New Testament the resurrection of Christ Jesus is an event of God, the consequences of which effect the human societies in which people are involved. One place in the New Testament where the consequences of resurrection are set out is in the Book of Revelation. This book of the New Testament often uses language that sounds strange to our ears but which, nevertheless, is language that is the bearer of the truth about the eventfulness of God. On Sunday we shall listen to, and reflect upon, a reading from the Book of Revelation.

Giving Back at Easter

One of our Participants Robert Clarke had an idea a few weeks ago that it would be great for 'Skooters' to collect money for the Good Friday Appeal. So he went out & organized 2 tins for us. Everyone from the group was happy to help & felt good being a part of the Good Friday Appeal.

People gave what they could including one person happily giving his money box of saved 5c pieces. Robert and I took the tins into Edihad Stadium to Channel 7 on Good Friday. It was a new experience for me and I was so glad I went. The atmosphere there was amazing. You could feel and see the joy, love and kindness of people who worked there and those who brought in the donations. Many people had shopping trolleys full of tins; some people had a few tins some had only one tin, but every cent was appreciated and everyone was appreciated.

It was wonderful the 'Skooters' group were able to be a part of it and I am so proud of the group for raising $161.00. Well done!

Skooters at the Grand Prix

The Group appreciated very much complimentary tickets given to them from the Grand Prix organization. Alicia said she woke up at 5 am because she was so excited about going. The disabled stand was easy to access and we were very close to the track and had a long view. A disabled facility were next to the stand making it very easy to enjoy the day. We had a picnic lunch, kept our ear plugs securely in our ears, and had fun! This is Older Adults having the opportunity to continue the 'Discovery of Life'!
