Worship Theme 7.2.2010

In the reading from the Old Testament for this Sunday God calls Isaiah to preach in such a way that the people will not comprehend, that their minds will be dull, and their eyes will not see the point. Is the prophet here setting out a retrospective justification for lazy and sloppy preachers, or is something more profound at stake? This is the question to be explored at worship on Sunday.

The South Port Singers rehearsal

The South Port Singers rehearsal at 7:30 on Monday 8th Feb will be at the home of Jean Miller, 101 McGregor Street, Middle Park. Followed by a supper to farewell Katherine Manera.

1Corinthians: 15:1-11

Psalms: 138
Luke: 5:1-11

Farewell Margaret Burgess

It is with sadness we advise that our friend Margaret Burgess passed away on Wednesday 3rd February 2010. Margaret was a long-time member of our Church, firstly at Middle Park and then at South Melbourne. Her Church meant a lot to Margaret and she was very involved in the activities such as Day Care (starting in Middle Park then at South Melbourne), U.C.A.F. and setting up morning tea at South Melbourne. Margaret only ceased these activities due to ill health and she moved into assisted accommodation. Our love and prayers are with her family. We thank God for allowing us to be part of her life's journey. There will be a Service of Thanksgiving to God for the Life of Margaret Burgess at Paul the Apostle Church on Friday 12th February, 2010 at 2pm.

Beginnings and Openings

A warm welcome to the 22 new 3 year olds who started at the Port Melbourne kindergarten this week. I hear they are a delightful group, as are the 4 year olds and I am sure it will be a great year.

The Op Shop also re-opened after the summer break. Op shop volunteers spent many hours getting the shop ready. It is a lot of work and done with such care. Judging by the queue that had formed outside the shop on Wednesday morning it would seem that people were eagerly waiting the re-opening.. Anne
