Jamming in the Kitchen

Would you like to warm up some winter mornings during Term 3 by making delicious jams and marmalades?

Come along for a chat and yummy morning tea, no jam making experience needed.

Tuesdays 9.30 – 12 noon, 20th July, 17th August and 14th September at the Port Melbourne Church.

Under the Pump: Christianity Today

What we may call the Orthodox Christian faith is today under pressure from various critics. From one side modern atheists are rabid in their denigration of Christianity. From another side the central doctrines of the faith are being challenged by the 'Progressive Christian' movement. How should the Christian revolution respond to these challenges?

For four Sundays in October at Paul the Apostle the congregation will study the substance of these challenges, evaluate them, and consider whether they are accurate criticisms. This may lead to a reprising of Christianity as the messenger of a new humanity and cosmic reality. The congregation invites anyone who is interested to join them in these forums. Further notices about times and places will follow.

Alternative Worship Workshop, 14th August

Led by Cheryl Laurie, this workshop offers an opportunity to explore alternative worship forms.

Music and Fun with Peter Sullivan

Thanks to Harrison's we all enjoyed a wonderful morning of Music with Peter 'Sully' Sullivan on the piano playing a variety of fabulous music. There were many wonderful pieces that made our spirits and emotions soar!

Backed by his 2 sons we tapped and clapped. His daughter sang and it was a special treat having Peter and his father play duets of fun toe tapping sing a long music.

It was a special time giving us a chance to let our hair down and to socialize with others.

Peter has a TV show on channel 31 on Tuesdays nights at 11.30pm.

Stephen McGarry thanked the South Uniting Church for being able to use their wonderful hall and South Port UnitingCare for their support.

It will be good to see Anne Garrow, our CEO, back next week and to hear more of her and her families wonderful European holiday.

Warm wishes, Sandy
