NEWS AND NOTICES

Coming Events & Items of Interest

Worship theme at the Paul the Apostle 13-6-10

Some years ago a book was published with the title True Deceivers. The book advanced the thesis that the parables told by Jesus, and the stories about him in the four Gospels, were meant to deceive, or beguile, their hearers into seeing everyday events in a new way. Seeing things in a new way would result in people acting in new ways. St Luke's account of what happened when Jesus went to dinner with a pious countryman is meant to seduce us into seeing and acting in a new way in response to God's novel presence in Jesus who the Church worships as Truth and Life.

Thank you

Shirley and Euan Browitt have been volunteering at the Op Shop for over 10 years. Every Saturday they make the trip from their home in Dandenong. Shirley keeps things ticking over in the back room sorting and keeping things in order. An absolutely essential task. Euan is the out front man who is known by regulars for his never ending supply of wise cracks and jokes – how he remembers them all is beyond me.

Shirley and Euan are going to have a break and do some travelling. We thank them for their wonderful service which gives twice, first through their care of the customers who come to the shop and then through the assistance we can provide to community members who are less fortunate with the shop proceeds.

Happy and safe travels.

Anne
