Thrift and Care – Learning from our Elders

On May 20th South Port UnitingCare hosted 40 people at a morning to learn from the older generation in our community about using less, recycling, repairing and re-using things. People shared stories ranging from working with hand tools, learning for yourself, connecting with neighbours, growing and using vegetables and saving water.

The morning also featured a table of mystery objects: a concrete float, cold chisel, seed dibber, needle case, darning mushroom and another item that still remains a mystery!

Thank you to Sandy Atherton, Doris Gordon, Nancy Gray, Estelle Vale and Gladys Evison for their help to provide the delicious morning tea and lunch.

Janet Hoare, Simply Living Project Worker

Still a mystery – do you know what this is? Something to do with tatting or embroidery perhaps?

Gladys Evison, along with some lovely scones, brought along a recipe book dating back to 1875 to share with the group.
